I'm Carol, owner of Wellbeing Pathways

Passionate about increasing your power to live life free from an eating disorder

I am a certified and registered clinical hypnotherapist and mindfulness instructor. I have undertaken further training to offer appropriate support to those affected with eating disorders.

Consultations will require disclosure of current, or previous therapy and treatments to support your wellbeing and appropriateness to use hypnotherapy or mindfulness.

About

Gain the healthy habits and thinking to break free

Living with an eating disorder is a journey, and like any journey, there are times new ways of getting to where you want to be can be explored.

Hypnotherapy together with mindfulness could be something you wish to explore to support you find new ways of building your confidence, self-esteem and living healthily with food.

Much confusion surrounds the issue of eating disorders, including anorexia and bulimia. The popular view is that it is mostly young girls who suffer from it. But older women and men may also struggle with it.

Hypnotherapy combined with mindfulness techniques can give you the resources to resist and overcome the old unhealthy habits, compulsions or temptations.
